

Jazz on the Lawn

L'Tanya Mari' Trio

L'Tanya Mari' is a nationally recognized and critically acclaimed jazz vocalist and creative arranger. Her 2009 recording A Teardrop of Sun garnered airplay across the US and Canada, landing her a top spot on the American Jazz Charts. Her soaring voice, along with impeccable intonation, clear articulation and a confident, swinging delivery, has solidified Mari' as having "a perfectly unadorned and simply phrased vocal style riding a perfect pitch voice. Her approach is not unlike that of a young Wynton Marsalis, who debuted with sharply-coiffed early recordings, well conceived and played."
